

This is to request that the FCC disallow the broadcasting of an anti-Kerry documentary just prior to the election. In my view, the airing of such a documentary is an in-kind political contribution and the broadcast should be allowed only if it is legally aired as a political advertisement.